Hello Parents,

"It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas..." We're only two days away from a nice, long break and students, staff and parents (I'm sure) are filled with Christmas cheer. Other than Easter this is the most important time in the church year. We prepare our hearts and minds for our little baby Jesus to come into the world and anticipate his glorious resurrection some thirty-odd years later.

Please look over the newsletter and the various announcements / updates found throughout. Of special note are the calendar items (sporting events, finals schedule, etc.) you see to the right of this text. When we come back from break, we will have a little over two weeks of school before 1st semester final exams. Please help us get the most out of your child's academic performance by checking your child's grades online, communicating with teachers where appropriate, getting extra help where needed, etc.

Let me know how I can help you towards this end.

The school office will have a modified schedule over break. Please note the days and hours of operation the school will be open for you. I look forward to seeing you all next year.

In Christ,

Lucas Fitzgerald

Pacific Lutheran High School

Principal
